

CAPE ROYAL COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
INTRODUCTION LETTER TO SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS

January, 2020

Dear Students,

The Cape Royal Community Foundation is sponsoring the 19th Annual Lee County High School Golf Scholarship Tournament on April 4, 2020 to raise money for our scholarship program. The CRCF will be awarding four $5000 scholarships to two senior female golfers and two senior male golfers who meet the eligibility requirements listed in the application packet.

Attached is the Scholarship Application Packet that you need to complete and send to or deliver to the address on the bottom of the front page of the application by the deadline date of February 2020.

The scholarship will be awarded on April 4, 2020 prior to the start of the tournament which is 9:30 am. The recipients will be notified within a week before the date of the award presentation. Your presence is requested at the scholarship presentation.

If you need any further information, please contact either member of the committee listed below.

The Cape Royal Community Foundation, Inc. is pleased to announce to the Lee County High Schools that the foundation will be accepting applications for four scholarships of $5000 each that will be awarded to two male students and to two female students. These students must be members of the high school golf teams, have a good academic record and be involved in other school and community activities. These students must continue their post-secondary education in an institution of higher education to include trade schools starting in the summer or fall of 2020. Four scholarships totaling $20,000 will be awarded this year.

ELIGIBILITY

- be a resident of Lee County
- be a member of a Lee County High School's golf team
- be a graduating senior accepted at, and planning to attend, an accredited college, university, or vocational trade school during the summer or fall of 2020

REQUIREMENTS

- a list of high school activities/clubs/sports (20 points)
- a list of community activities/work experience (20 points)
- two letters of recommendation: one from a teacher, counselor, golf coach, or administrator of the high school attended; one letter from a non-school source such as pastor, employer, or community member, but not from family or relatives (10 points each = total of 20 points)
- applicant's comments in an essay on the importance of the scholarship (20 points)
- rating from Golf Coach (20 points)
- must present evidence of acceptance at a post-secondary educational institution
- official copy of High School Transcript must be included (10 points)

Applications for the scholarships must be received by February 2020

REVIEW AND AWARD

All completed applications will be reviewed and considered by representatives of an educational institute without regard to race, religion or ethnicity. Scholarship awards will be made directly to the post secondary schools of the recipients prior to the beginning of their attendance.
